

Get Out

Night and Day
Night & Day, a ballet in which Cape Town City Ballet pays tribute to Cole Porter, will be performed at the Maynardville Open Air Theatre in Wynberg on Sunday, as well as on January 30 and February 6, 13 and 20 at 8.15pm. Tickets are R90 to R150. Book at Computicket or Artscape Dial-a-Seat, 021421 7695

Bubbly and jazz
Start your weekends in style by sipping bubbly and sampling fresh oysters while enjoying jazz beats performed by guitarist Alvin Dyers at the Pepper Club Luxury Hotel & Spa (Loop Street) every Friday from 4.30pm. Specials include six oysters and a glass of bubbly for R60, and half price strawberry daiquiris, apple mojitos and passion fruit margaritas. Dyers brings the sophisticated sound of traditional jazz and fuses it with the soulful sound of blues. Call 021 812 8888 or visit www.pepperclub.co.za

Art Salon success
For the past month local and international art lovers and investors have been streaming into Rose Korber's 19th Art Salon, and because of its enormous success and public interest, the exhibition has been extended until the end of February.

Contact Rose Korber or Valerie Botha on 021 438 9152, 083 261 1173 or roskorber@icon.co.za. Website www.rosekorberart.com

Whale of a Heritage
Join a Whale of a Heritage Route on Sunday morning for an educational event which will unpack myths and mysteries of the mid- and lower sections of the Silvermine River. Ramble from west to east down the oldest road in this area while finding and then exploring the ruins of Smit's vegetable farm, as well as the site of a spring which once supplied Fish Hoek farm with water at the turn of the last century. Inquiries: 075 391 2105 or e-mail info@awhaleofaheritageroute.co.za

'Celebracion Flamenca'
La Rosa, South Africa's most established Spanish dance company, will be extending its 20th anniversary celebrations with a season of Celebracion Flamenca at On Broadway (44 Long Street) from Tuesdays to Saturdays until January 29. Tickets are R95. To book call 021 424 1194, go to www.onbroadway.co.za or book at any branch of Computicket.

Fair antiques
The last Alphen Antiques and Collectables Fair of the month will take place at the Alphen Centre (opposite Constantia Village) on Sunday between 10am and 4pm.

A variety of items, including jewellery, glass, ceramics, silver, toys, books and paintings, will be on sale. Entry is free. There is ample parking and refreshments are available. For further details call Des on 084 626 7499.

Magic Met designs
One of the biggest events on the racing calendar, the J&B Met, takes place next weekend. The dress theme this year is Larger Than Life and official shopping partner Cavendish Square is hosting a design competition and fashion show on Saturday at 1pm in which graduate students from FEDISA will showcase designer outfits in keeping with that theme.

The competition will be judged by a panel of celebrity judges and the winner will get automatic entry into the finals of the J&B Met Most Elegant Couple competition. Top Cavendish Square fashion retailers will also be showcasing some of the hottest trends and looks for this year's Met.

For a chance to win two VIP tickets to the J&B Met valued at R7 000, sign up to be a fan of Cavendish Square on Facebook, find the competition photo gallery and follow the instructions. The winner and their partner will be able to schmooze with the rich and famous in the exclusive J&B Met VIP Marquee on January 29. Winners must be 18 or older. Drink responsibly.

Ravishing ramble
The Peninsula Ramblers invite guests to an easy/moderate three-hour hike tomorrow from Kirstenbosch to the Observatory River Club, with a bit of history on the walk. Meet at 2.30pm in the first parking area as you enter the River Club grounds with adequate water, a hat, snack and your R10 club donation. Contact Rob Gimberg on 021 448 0556 or 084 440 0556.

